$360,000

This updated home is located on an elevated corner allotment of approximately 710m² and has so much to offer. Suitable for all categories of buyers the home has a renovated bathroom, an updated kitchen, new plantation shutters on the windows and the floor coverings and internal paint have been updated in recent years. The kitchen is open to the dining area and lounge room and there are three generous sized bedrooms, all accessed from the central hallway. Outside you will find undercover parking, a handy workshop/storage shed and an undercover alfresco area. There is also the benefit of a new solar power system that has recently been installed. With low maintenance gardens and front and side access this is a property to call home.
