Awaiting Price Guide

This inviting home creates a warm and homely feeling due to its wood-lined walls and inviting large living space. It comprises 3 spacious bedrooms with a full en-suite and walk-in In robe to the main bedroom. The living space is warm and inviting, due to the continuing wood lining theme. When was the last time you saw a bar with a sink?and refrigeration?. A large capacity wood-heater supported by a R/C Air Conditioner takes care of heating and cooling. The country-style kitchen is also large, with an island breakfast bar and room for a dining table. The appliances include a stainless steel commercial gas cooktop and double oven - perfect for large gatherings, which the home can easily cater to.Both bathrooms are contemporary, meaning that this coastal home is move in ready without the need for any further investment.-The back BBQ area is a delight and overlooks the expansive and well groomed rear garden. The home, positioned on 997 square metres, is well positioned on the land, allowing for this substantial rear recreational area. The side driveway, carport and large shed cater well for all things recreational, including caravans, boats and cars. This home is a perfect getaway or permanent home. The price range has most definitely met the market in this majestic hamlet. The property has all the features and amenities desirous of a home and is in a price bracket below comparable homes. We do not consider this to last long and urge inspections.To complete an inspection, please contact 0351146552 or 0436036646. We are open 7 days per week.
