Tucked away in a quiet court location this tidy home offers a lot behind its unassuming façade, boasting three good sized bedrooms and a spacious and light filled main bathroom. The main living area takes advantage of the north sun and flows well between kitchen, living and dining as well as incorporating a large outdoor entertaining area off the living area, giving you plenty of options for entertaining. A small rear yard provides a bit of green space and enough room for the kids and pets to play without having to deal with constant maintenance. Within close proximity to Moama's bush walking tracks, Woolworths shopping complex and Moama Grammar, this is the ideal location if you are looking for convenience and low maintenance living. Currently tenanted at $365 per week until 16/09/2024 with an excellent tenant.
