Introducing a rare opportunity for all discerning buyers, a charming three-bedroom, one-bathroom residence poised on a generous 696 square metre plot, nestled within the tranquil avenues of Redcliffe, at 14 Trilby Street, QLD, 4020. This delightful property exudes potential, presenting a renovator's dream canvas, ready to be transformed into a stunning family home or a wise investment. The spacious land size offers ample room for extensions, landscaping, or even the addition of a swimming pool (STCA), ensuring your new home grows with your aspirations. Each of the three well-proportioned bedrooms offers a comfortable retreat, with the home benefitting from a practical layout that maximises space and natural light. The solitary bathroom is poised for a modern revamp, promising to become a stylish and functional space. Living here means you are a mere two minutes from the picturesque Redcliffe waterfront, where you can enjoy leisurely strolls, vibrant sunsets, and the ocean breeze. Moreover, the property is conveniently located within walking distance to local shops and esteemed schools, establishing an ideal setting for both families and professionals. Parking is never an issue, with two spaces available to keep your vehicles secure. Whether you're a first-time buyer with a vision, a seasoned renovator looking for your next project, or an investor seeking a property with superb growth potential, 14 Trilby Street is an offering that commands attention. Don't miss the chance to make this house your bespoke masterpiece in the heart of Redcliffe. Your dream home awaits!
