Perfectly presented and light filled throughout, this inviting home combines family charm, a relaxed, predominantly single level floorplan and a quiet, end of cul-de-sac setting. The ambience is immediately inviting with a large front verandah and interiors finished with timber floors and high ceilings. A substantial free flowing living, dining and sitting area welcome flexibility in family living, flowing through a bank of bi-folds to the substantial partially covered wraparound deck and the private level lawns with built-in kids play equipment. Tradies or the home handyman will love the over-sized LUG with abundant storage and a workshop. Stylishly appointed and move in ready, it boasts easy access to the bus, village shops, Forestville Public School, river parklands and Chatswood.
