Auction

Auction Location: On-Site Nestled within a peaceful and private cul-de-sac is this must-see four-bedroom family home. You'll enjoy all the space and comfort you need paired with a great location only moments from the local park and close to shops, transport and services. Inside, the layout is bright and open with a large living area ready for the business of everyday life. A contemporary kitchen sits in the heart of this haven while a formal lounge room and a formal dining area offer the perfect space for entertaining. Outside, a large fenced yard ensures an abundance of room for those who like to move and play and there is easy-care landscaping with potential for the green thumb to create their dream garden. This picture-perfect home is conveniently located close to everything you could need. For families, you will live within the Stretton school catchment area and the beautiful Greenways Esplanade Park is only steps from your door. The local bus stop can take you right to the centre of the city and you are also only minutes from the local grocery store, childcare options and so much more.
