This charming home, which has undergone recent renovations, sits on a gently sloping 2213m² plot of land, offering peaceful river and rural views. The refurbishment has breathed new life into this weatherboard gem, making it an ideal choice for first-time homebuyers, retirees or as an addition to your investment portfolio. With all the hard work already completed, you can simply move in and start enjoying the comforts of this delightful residence. The kitchen and dining area provide an enjoyable space for cooking and sharing meals, while the lounge area offers ample room to relax and unwind. During the cooler months, you can stay cosy and warm with the brand-new air-conditioner in the lounge room and the new tastic in the bathroom. The white kitchen has been upgraded with timber topped soft-close cabinets, and the timber floorboards add a beautiful touch to the interior. All the internal doors have been replaced to give the home a modern feel, complemented by the new window furnishings. If you have a green thumb and enjoy outdoor activities like gardening, this property is perfect for you. The fertile soils make it ideal for planting a garden or fruit trees. Additionally, there is the bonus of a secure garage to accommodate your car. Located in Hayes, a picturesque town located in the Derwent Valley region, offering a serene setting along the beautiful Derwent River, surrounded by lush green pastures and gently rolling hills. It is conveniently located approximately 30 kilometres from Hobart and only a 6-minute commute to the bustling town of New Norfolk. To schedule an inspection of this highly sought-after property, it is recommended to contact Alison or Jenny promptly, as it is expected to generate significant interest.
