

140 Leworthy Loop, Karragullen, WA 6111

Sold House

Monday, 1 April 2024

140 Leworthy Loop, Karragullen, WA 6111

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 5

Area: 2 m2

Type: House

Sam Saffioti

Contact agent

One of the most stunning homes we have had the pleasure to represent in recent times. The embodiment of sophistication, this magnificent residence reveals a strategically planned bespoke design with its very proud owners sparing no expense in its construction. Beautifully crafted from Rammed Earth to ensure absolute harmony with the sheer tranquillity of its natural surrounds, number 140 Leworthy Loop showcases modern meticulously finished interiors with total attention to detail. Representing high-end designer living at its finest, the clever seamlessly flowing floor plan creates an immediate sense of peace. Immersed in gorgeous Northern Sun, it is graced with towering high ceilings throughout, and supported with stunning porcelain flooring. The executive kitchen is a grand affair and befitting of a Michelin-star chef, a masterpiece in itself. The careful consideration of the perfect balance between bedroom accommodation and relaxed living areas is evident, with the Master Suite being one of colossal proportions. Sublime in every sense of the word, this incredible home sits proudly on a private 2 hectare fully fenced allotment abutting Crown Reserve parkland. A truly splendid property offering an enviable lifestyle.