Featuring a completely stunning renovation, where every surface of this home has been improved. You cannot pass up this opportunity, in the esteemed 'The Colonnades'. When you enter, you are instantly drawn to the imported Italian porcelain tiles, which, when contrasted with the view of the bright blue waters of Lavender Bay from the living space and the balcony, only add to the luxurious international feel. Plus, with generous proportions which will allow you to have the benefit of a dual living and dining zone. The kitchen is the perfect blend of contemporary style and practicality with the clean lines of brand-new cabinetry and Caesarstone countertops. Along with premium appliances, giving you the option of both gas and electric cooking. The integrated dishwasher and integrated laundry and storage only add to the appeal. Both Bedrooms continue the theme of style and practicality with new electric blinds and built-in robes with Lavender Bay Views from each. The master suite features a brilliant size ensuite, equipped with full size bathtub, along with new vanity, toilet suite, rain shower and frameless shower screen. The main bathroom is also renovated to the same high standard. With the added bonus of secure parking and a substantial storage cage this is the perfect downsizing opportunity or harbour holiday retreat.
