Opposite the Urban Square and merely seconds from renowned RMIT University, city living doesn't get much more exciting than from within this cosmopolitan two bedroom apartment. Poised on the 14th floor of A'Beckett Tower, appreciate the secure entry as you head out to enjoy the Queen Victoria Market, Melbourne City Baths, Melbourne Central, State Library and Emporium Melbourne. Desirably oriented towards the north, dazzling sunshine streams across the balcony and in through full-height windows into the open-plan living and dining room. Step out to this balcony from the master bedroom, featuring a sparkling dual-access ensuite. Natural light and views fill the second bedroom, fitted with a study nook. Includes a stone kitchen with premium appliances, newly installed floorboards, split system air-conditioning and a full-sized secure car space. Surrounded by fabulous dining experiences, live just moments from the train, trams and Melbourne University. -?Cosmopolitan two bedroom apartment-?Seconds from RMIT University and Melbourne Central-?Windows and natural light in both bedrooms-?North-facing balcony-?Open living/dining and premium stone kitchen-?Split system air-conditioning-?Full-sized secure car space (not a stacker)
