Architecturally extended showcasing contemporary refinement and luxury over two exclusively appointed living domains and poolside entertaining, this four bedroom, three bathroom plus study home with direct access to Johnson Park is a masterpiece of single-level sophistication. From the glistening leadlight details on a beautiful façade through herringbone laid Oak floors that sweep through a lofty hall to a light-filled formal lounge, private study and an open plan living domain with soaring raked ceilings, this home takes the linear design of the traditional Californian Bungalow home and elevates the form through a stunning extension that promises high-end family living. A no expense spared approach sees swathes of travertine feature in a gourmet Miele kitchen that includes a fully integrated fridge/freezer, and a superb butler's pantry links to a luxe laundry. Marble encases the Escea gas-log fireplace and sliding stacker doors give way to a louvered Vergola, outdoor kitchen with Grill King BBQ, fridge, designer fire pit and a sparkling in-ground pool for your alfresco entertaining. When it's time to retire the plush bedrooms with custom robes offer elegant respite, the master wing with a traditional open fireplace impressing with its lavish dressing room and day spa inspired travertine lined ensuite that includes a decadent freestanding tub. With marble counters and English brass tapware in luxury bathrooms, designer lighting, heating/cooling, double glazing and off-street parking, this spectacular home zoned to Northcote High invites discerning families to live the ultimate family lifestyle near Fairfield Village, fashionable High Street, transport and well-regarded schools.
