They really don't come much better than this! Situated in the stunning location of Bauple Forest Estate and surrounded by like-minded people chasing that perfect place to live on acreage. It is truly a picturesque location, surrounded by State Forest and only a short drive to the wonders of the Fraser Coast, Rainbow Beach and for all your necessities you can choose between Maryborough or Gympie. This home sits on a fully fenced and gated 6269m² of manicured gardens, hardwood trees for additional shade and offers quality life with plenty of space, quietness and tranquility. Set up as a RV homebase with circular driveway and high clearance shed with workshop. The main house boasts a huge 15m x 7 metre front deck with large sliding door access from the lounge room and master bedroom. The thing that really stands out about this property is the use of large windows and doors to capture the breezes and to give you a stunning outlook across your gardens. Huge lounge room with plenty of space for your larger furniture. Well appointed kitchen with large pantry. The Master bedroom boasts its own deck with closet and access through to the two-way bathroom. The secondary bedroom is good in size with closet and plenty of natural lighting. Laundry, with separate toilet and rear deck access to the back yard. For those seeking dual living options you will be blown away with the studio offering a massive 60m² of living space, open plan living, kitchen and huge windows with just the best outlook! There is an additional 3mx6m shed perfect for your tools and mower storage, and a whopping powered 12mx11m drive-through shed with high clearance and an air-conditioned office. Maybe the Man/Lady Cave? This property offers absolute true value and needs to be seen to appreciate. And the best part? This property comes fully furnished, complete with a ride-on mower and all the gardening equipment you'll need to maintain the lush surrounds effortlessly!
