The very place to build your dream home, to retire or work from home. Just a quick hour's drive from the bustling heart of Brisbane, Laidley sits in the Lockyer Valley with old world charm, lush farmlands and some of the most awe-inspiring landscapes in South East Queensland. Laidley is the second largest town in the valley and the beauty of this region can be seen all around. Take a drive up to the Cunningham or Schultz lookouts and sunset and you'll see why. Lake Dyer which has come out of the building of the Bill Gunn Dam is a brilliant place for a picnic, climb up onto the suspension bridge and get a photo of the backdrop, surrounding this area. Laidley has a very historic streetscape, with many delightful shopping opportunities from the unique crafted gifts or browsing the diverse offerings in the newsagency, shoe store, and op shops, you're sure to find something that brings a smile to your face. And, don't miss the chance to indulge in delectable treats at one of the town's bakeries, cafes, or patisserie. If you're into history, the Das Neumann Haus German Settlement Museum and coffee shop. This house was hand built by the German immigrant Herman Neumann in 1893, and has been rebuilt to its former condition, so consider taking a guided tour and fully embrace the captivating Laidley Pioneer Village. Being a local you can and will do this many times. The Spring Festival in September is a 3 day celebration of the community and will leave you believing you have made the right decision to make this quaint part of the Lockyer Valley your very own.*Terms and conditions apply.
