With no heritage overlay and nestled within a sought-after Kew pocket, this charming three-bedroom, one-bathroom home sits on a generous allotment of approximately 676 sqm and represents a fantastic opportunity to experience the best of the area, offering potential for expansion or the creation of a brand-new home or two (STCA). The flat and incredibly peaceful northeast-facing backyard boasts side vehicular access and a lockable shed at the back of the property. Inside, three bedrooms and a fully accessible bathroom are accompanied by a light-filled open living/dining domain and a second sitting room, separated by sliding doors – providing the unrivalled potential to renovate the home or transform the property into the architectural residence of your dreams (STCA). A three-minute walk from fantastic dining options, shopping convenience at Willsmere Village, and a short drive from the Eastern Freeway and several premier Melbourne schools, this home provides a unique opportunity to capitalise on highly sought-after lifestyle convenience and quiet Kew living.
