Positioned upon over 6 lush acres, this fantastic dual living family home enjoys views across the beautiful Valley. If privacy is what you are looking for, this home is completely secluded from the road. With dual street frontages, the potential for unimpeded access for all your livestock and lifestyle options is massive, with large usable open spaces aplenty. Sitting atop of the crest overlooking the aforementioned land, the main home boasts 3 large bedrooms, all with built ins, whilst the master bedroom includes a large walk in and ensuite. The free flowing kitchen, dining and lounge take in the views from both sides. Not to be outdone, the massive rumpus style entertaining provided easy access from the 3 car lockup garage. But of course, as if that wasn't enough, the fully self contained second home ensures space abounds. Home 2 is spread across 2 storeys and is also 3 bedrooms with a master suite and multiple balconies that take in the views that surround. Each home has their own access and could easily be converted into 1 large home if desired. The abundance of usable land provides the perfect canvas for extra sheds, horse and livestock infrastructure. Dual living, dual access and countless opportunities! Make it yours today.
