Immediately liveable while still offering so much potential, this 1960s brick home is fully fenced and neat as a pin. Inside you'll find the open plan living and dining areas as well as the well sized kitchen, which all have a north-east aspect. There are also three generous sized bedrooms. Positioned at the quieter end of this well known Toowoomba street with St Joseph's College, St Vincent's Hospital and The Range Shopping Centre close by. Opportunities like this, within this great location, are becoming harder to find.
