The Area - Waterloo Waterloo is an inner-city neighbourhood that's full of juxtapositions. Fast emerging as a stylish address, Waterloo is situated on the edge of expansive Moore Park. Warehouse cafés, art galleries and designer stores are becoming the norm in a neighbourhood that still has echoes of its industrial, working-class past. (source - Sitchu). Redfern Situated on the outskirts of Sydney's CBD, Redfern is a suburb that has edge and grit - an attitude that's represented in its arts venues, bars and café scene. In the midst of it all is Redfern Park offering up an alluring green space where families linger around the playground and water features. A neighbourhood that was once given a wide berth has become a popular stomping ground for professionals and students.
