this tightly held charming standalone 5 bedroom residence complete with studio sits on a substantial 564 sqm block in one of Botany's most sought after streets. This beloved family home with a spacious backyard presents a myriad of opportunities, lending itself to meet all of your family's unique needs. This property has something to offer for everyone with four generous oversized bedrooms each with fireplaces for a touch of nostalgia during those cold winter months. With wide open spaces, period charm features and simple modern enhancements which deliver a perfect environment for family living. An outside studio/ office overlooking the backyard fit with a private bathroom. Ideally positioned in the heart of Botany close to schools, cafes, shops and transport. A bus trip to Eastgardens Shopping Centre, eastern suburbs beaches and sporting facilities. Circa 1890's
