

145 Upper Clontarf Street, Seaforth, NSW 2092

House For Sale

Friday, 9 February 2024

145 Upper Clontarf Street, Seaforth, NSW 2092

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Ryan Spence
0420378786

Matt Brady

Auction

This light-filled residence sits a stone's throw from the Wakehurst Golf Course, and offers a quiet, tranquil environment for family life. Living spaces to the front and rear, plus a lower-level retreat and a sunny backyard with swimming pool all provide great flexibility for the family, with space to stretch out, entertain, relax and play. This home has a welcoming, inviting ambience, and big-picture windows that frame lush outlooks from most windows. This special pocket of the northern beaches is surrounded by verdant green bushland, is very close to Manly Dam and Bantry Reserve, and offers the convenience of North Balgowlah Shops, Public School and city transport just moments away. • Front and rear living and dining spaces both opening to terraces • Large entertainer's deck with a picturesque outlook over the backyard • Sunny backyard with open, level lawn & big saltwater/chlorinated pool • Kitchen with gas cooking, dishwasher, generous pantry space • Freshly-sanded pine floorboards, high ceilings, plantation shutters • Generous, queen-sized bedrooms with built-in wardrobes & ceiling fans • Well-presented family bathroom with bathtub and separate shower, • Lower-level retreat with bedroom, bathroom, study & garden access • Large tandem garage with internal access, plus workshop and storage • Lush family location near golf course, Bantry Reserve, Manly Dam