Definition: A "Hidden Gem" is something that isn't well known or popular, but has something special or unique about it that inspires positive feelings. Welcome home to this hidden gem; set back from the road, you will immediately sense the calm & privacy of this home. Stepping through the front door you're greeted by a large living area with soaring ceilings & an open staircase. Walking through the home you will notice a new & well thought-out kitchen, you will be impressed by the spacious feel of double height ceilings through this area, leading into the open plan dining & living. Outside is your own personal oasis, it is lush, green & beyond serene! The feeling of this outdoor area needs to be experienced, it is beautiful. Making your way upstairs, you will find three large bedrooms, two bathrooms & a third living space with west facing balcony that overlooks your outdoor greenery & would make the perfect spot to laze the afternoon away & enjoy our infamous WA sunsets.
