

146 Carthage Street, Tamworth, NSW 2340

Sold House

Wednesday, 11 October 2023

146 Carthage Street, Tamworth, NSW 2340

Bedrooms: 6

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 3

Area: 1012 m2

Type: House

Mark Madden
0401667218

Contact agent

Perfectly positioned in the heart of East Tamworth, this federation home exudes timeless charm and sophistication. Immediately impressive upon entry with the intricate details of ornate ceilings, polished floorboards and large timber windows combining to create an inviting ambiance throughout. The home offers versatile living and dining spaces, allowing you to host formal gatherings with sophistication or unwind in the cozy informal areas for everyday living. The formal living is generous in size and extends to the front verandah via French doors. An open plan family room incorporates the casual meals area and timber kitchen which easily caters to the needs of the most discerning chef with two ovens and ample bench space. The bedrooms are oversized with bedroom 4 featuring it's own ensuite, perfect for guests. The master suite is grand in proportions and is positioned upstairs. The main offers ensuite with separate spa and deluxe walk-in robe while the 6th bedroom could be an ideal nursery or study. A balcony looks over the rear yard which is easy care and includes a sparkling inground pool and private car accommodation. An exceptional residence with Schools, CBD and parks all within walking distance, 146 Carthage Street is the perfect blend of classic charm and modern comfort in a prime location. - Perfectly positioned on 1012sqm in highly desired East Tamworth- 6 oversized bedrooms plus study, Master suite with ensuite, spa and deluxe walk-in robe- 4 bathrooms in total creating versatility for families of any size- Ornate ceilings, polished floorboards and timber windows create ambiance- Formal living & dining ideal for entertaining and gatherings of all sizes- Open plan family room incorporates casual meals and kitchen- Timber kitchen with two ovens and ample bench space while overlooking pool- Sparkling inground pool, double carport and single garage for secure parking.- Across the road from St Nicholas School & walking distance to CBD & parks.- Front verandah and rear alfresco the perfect areas to relax outdoors