

146 Dexter Street, Westbury, Tas 7303

Sold House

Monday, 4 September 2023

146 Dexter Street, Westbury, Tas 7303

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Area: 650 m2

Type: House

Donna Smith
0363624405

Daryl Smith
0407623620

$510,000

Introducing a stunning brick veneer home located in the heart of Westbury, Tasmania. This beautifully presented property offers a low-maintenance lifestyle with modern finishes throughout. The three-bedroom, two-bathroom home is in excellent condition, featuring floating floors, built-in wardrobes in every bedroom, and spacious bathrooms. The kitchen is sleek and modern. There is undercover access to a large shed for extra storage. Located on Dexter Street, this property offers a great flat area for easy walking distance to amenities such as cafes, shops, and schools. The bathrooms are not pokey, and the bedrooms are roomy, providing plenty of space for comfortable living. With extra storage available in the laundry, this property is perfect for those seeking a hassle-free lifestyle. In the current market, finding a property like this is hard to come by in this price range, making it a well-priced opportunity to secure your dream home. Don't miss out on the chance to make this wonderful property your own. Contact us today to arrange an inspection and see for yourself why this is the perfect place to call home.