New to Market

Coming to the market for the very first time is this spacious three-bedroom brick & tile home owned & built by one of the central coast's most respected builders. Set over one level this quality home offers three oversized bedrooms with the master boasting an ensuite & walk-in robe with the two bedrooms able to accommodate king-sized beds. You will instantly notice the attention to detail from the builder with three large storage cupboards and stunning polished timber floorboards. The kitchen offers ample bench space, a gas cooktop, and room for a double fridge. The two spacious living areas give you an instant sense of space with the low-maintenance backyard giving you the blank canvas to design your ideal outdoor living space. The double lock-up garage with internal access offers space for a workshop with off-street parking for multiple vehicles.
