Experience a refreshingly unique and inviting haven in the heart of Newtown! This freshly painted captivating semi-detached home offers a distinctive blend of charm and character, featuring a coveted north-east rear aspect and dual street access. With spacious rooms drenched in natural light and an enchanting private rear courtyard that holds the potential for parking (subject to Council approval), this property is a true gem. From its welcoming traditional facade adorned with trademark tessellated tiled front porch to its timeless timber floorboards, soaring high ceilings, and sturdy full brick construction, this home exudes classic elegance. The spacious living room seamlessly transitions to a sunlit and chic galley-style stone and gas kitchen with a vaulted ceiling, a combined dining area, and easy access to the rear courtyard—a serene oasis perfect for outdoor relaxation and entertaining. Tucked away on one side, you'll find two generously sized bedrooms, with the master bedroom featuring his and hers robes and an original fireplace for added character. The bathroom has been updated and combines seamlessly with the laundry for your convenience. This remarkable property boasts a prime location that connects you effortlessly to the vibrant King Street dining and shopping scene, along with convenient access to bus services, the train station, University and Newtown High School of the Performing Arts. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this unique Newtown retreat your own!
