Welcome to Fermoy Estate, a truly premier subdivision located in a highly sought-after pocket. This exquisite community offers a unique blend of natural beauty with lush surrounding trees, basking in sunny aspects. The elevated blocks afford breathtaking rural views, while the flat blocks cater to those seeking convenience and diverse orientations. One of the highlights of Fermoy Estate is its tranquil ambiance, nestled within a no-through road with only one entrance and exit. This creates a peaceful and safe environment for residents. Despite its idyllic and almost rural setting, the estate remains conveniently close to all modern conveniences, ensuring a perfect balance between serenity and accessibility. We are excited to share that a significant portion of the land holdings have already been sold, with a portion still available for purchase. Whether your family is just starting to grow – or you're an empty nester winding down for retirement – Legana puts nature's playground at your feet. Whatever your passion – hiking, fishing, boating, or a Sunday drive through the 20 vineyards of the lush Tamar Valley – you're spoilt for outdoor adventure in Legana.
