Step into the dream of modern family living where seamless design meets comfort and style, delivering the finest in everyday functionality. Set amidst the lush vibrancy of established ornamental pear trees and a stunning maple tree lined driveway, in a location within walking distance from the town's centre, cafes, shops and schools, this contemporary family haven on approximately 1,165m² is crafted for a family life well-lived. Ideal for entertaining and the dynamics of daily family life, the open-plan living and dining area connects seamlessly with the sleek kitchen, where an island bench invites the opportunity for casual dining and flowing conversation, and a separate spacious lounge provides additional living space highly desired by families of any age. Outside, a sprawling rear garden further enhances the appeal of this modern family sanctuary where barbeques and celebrations beckon. A large covered alfresco area is the perfect setting for gatherings, and a lush lawn encourages loads of outdoor fun. The accommodation wing hosts four robed bedrooms, each providing a cozy retreat. The main bedroom is a stand-out with a walk-in robe, a lovely ensuite featuring a double vanity, and a sliding door to the outside, whilst the central bathroom and separate toilet cater to both convenience and privacy, ensuring that every family member's needs are met. Day-to-day living is a breeze with the convenience of abundant integrated storage, internal access to the garage adding a layer of practicality, double gates allowing secure storage for a trailer, caravan or boat, and ducted heating and evaporative cooling ensuring year-round comfort. Welcome to a home that exceeds expectations. Disclaimer: Disclaimer
