Situated an easy stroll away from Sydney Road, this freestanding, solid brick Art Deco home offers an appealing blend of immediate liveability and exceptional potential for future renovation and extension, subject to council approval. Light filled the timeless interior retains its original period charm with lofty decorative ceilings, oversized rooms, and polished timber floors. The entry flows to two bedrooms, an updated central bathroom, spacious lounge with double doors to the dining, and adjoining kitchen plus, there is a private garden. Other highlights include gas ducted heating, evaporative cooling, and rear right of way access. In an ever popular location, it is close to trams, Moreland Station, shops, cafes, and local schools.
