On top of the world

If you're looking for a property with a view, that is in a sought after, quiet street, also close to the beach and Sorrento township this could be it. Inside this brick rendered double storey home you will find living spaces that caters for dual living if required. The ground floor consists of two bedrooms with ensuites a kitchenette and living space which opens up to a private deck area with bay glimpse views as well as internal access from double garage and a small laundry area and your own personal lift. Upstairs has another two bedrooms that include their own personal decks with a tree top outlook. You will then walk into the kitchen and lounge area which leads you to the true masterpiece of this property, the north facing deck with a bay view you can sit all day watching the ships, boats and ever changing colours of the sea pass you by. The property has been a family home for over 30 years and is now ready for you to put your touch on it. There is potential to update, renovate and/or even just a cosmetic lift would really make this property one of the best hidden secrets in town!
