This quality brick and tile home, on a quiet street in McKail, is not one to be overlooked. Offering three bedrooms and one bathroom, with an extra powder room and toilet, it is ready to move into. The open plan, air-conditioned living, kitchen and dining area is light, bright and very spacious. This area is adjacent to a huge family or games room which can accommodate the largest of entertainment activities. At the rear of the property and adjoining the house, is an undercover patio area for those quiet times and an easy-care garden with a shed. A double garage completes this package. Come and view with Graham before it is gone!
