Nestled in a picturesque tree-lined street, only a five-minute walk from Haberfield Village, this three-bedroom home is wonderfully convenient. It has house-like proportions brimming with Art Deco charm and abundant natural light from its freestanding aspect to the north. The open-plan living and dining areas spill out onto a large north-facing deck and an inviting leafy private garden. The home enjoys a quiet family-friendly location that is well-connected to Haberfield village, Haberfield Public School, nearby parks and public transport into the city.

- Sun-drenched open lounge and dining through to modern kitchen with dishwasher and gas cooking
- Three bedrooms all with built-ins, plus a large sunroom / dual study to the master
- Stunning newly renovated bathroom with freestanding bath, separate shower, underfloor heating, heated towel rails, and a powder room
- Art Deco features throughout with lead-light windows, high patterned ceilings and ornate lighting
- Other features include skylights, original floorboards, ducted air, picture rails, and motorised blinds in master
- Leafy private rear garden with alfresco dining, north-facing deck and undercover parking
- Just a short 500m stroll to Haberfield village cafes, delis, patisseries, IGA and boutique shops
- Easy access to buses and WestConnex, 1.1km walk to Summer Hill station, 1.6km walk to Ashfield station
