Quietly tucked away on the second floor of a well-maintained security building, this lovely home captures light from its elevated position in every room. Recently refreshed and well-presented, the apartment features a generous sized, private balcony protected by established, leafy trees, the perfect place to relax in serenity and seclusion. In a brilliant location only moments to the Entertainment Quarter and within strolling distance to Oxford Street and Woollahra village boutiques and eateries, restaurants and transport, this low maintenance haven offers an enviable blend of relaxed living and sublime convenience. Features: • Welcoming entry with easy flow-through to central living areas and balcony • Private, second-floor position with timber floors and light, airy interiors • Open plan living/dining room leads to covered balcony and blue-sky view • Large kitchen with plentiful storage, s/steel appliances and leafy outlook • Two beds, both with built-in robes, ceiling fans and sunny, warm aspects • Sparkling, good sized main bathroom with bathtub and separate shower • Full sized laundry, secure underground, single lock-up garage plus storage • Stroll to parklands, shops, buses, short drive to Bondi and Bronte beaches
