For those entering the market & investors alike, the classic yet updated interior of this substantial elevated apartment nestled at the very rear of a solid block offers a peaceful vibe in one of the most central spots around. A dedicated entrance lends a spacious feel from the start, leading through concertina doors into a light filled living room with chocolate venetian blinds, which are throughout, a split system & a breakfast balcony with picturesque views. Classic retro elements such as an original kitchen in mint condition is complemented by contemporary appliances & a generous meals area all adding to the allure. The choice of two double bedrooms are enhanced by built-in wardrobes & leafy views, concluding with an immaculate retro bathroom featuring the original mosaic floor tiling, a bath & a generous laundry area. With storage & a car space, you're moments from public transport, Chapel Street, Ripponlea Village, local shopping strips, the best of Elwood & fabulous lifestyle amenities.
