Coastal living has never looked so good, and this property offers so many options for its new owner. Twin Waters is a fabulously quiet area, close to Mudjimba which offers pristine, quiet beaches where surfing and fishing can be enjoyed every day, while cafes and restaurants allow you to take the morning or night off cooking. There is the local Golf Course for avid golfers, and there are also local riverways for kayaking, stand-up paddle boarding and other watersports activities. With their dramatic and unique over-water architecture, the Water Gallery residences have become a tightly held and sought-after commodity. Apartments with an ideal Northern aspect are an especially rare find.
