Get ready to be blown away by the beauty, size and grandeur of this 1960's apartment. This first floor apartment offers an entrance area complete with a display cabinet and storage nook and leads to the expansive living area complete with gas log fire, air-conditioning and through to the sunny balcony. The renovated kitchen has been designed with style and functional flair to include a washing machine, gas cook top and a front loader washing machine and overlooks a second balcony sitting amongst the lush greenery. Unusually large master bedroom is complemented by the original built in robes and the central bathroom includes a separate shower, bath, toilet and clothes dryer. Adding to this impressive apartment are hardwood floors, picture rails, ceiling fans, high ceilings, ample storage, secure entrance and off street parking. Located around the corner from Toorak Village, Hawksburn train station and the Yarra River this will tick all the boxes.
