Expressions of Interest Capturing the essence of metropolitan living, this top floor apartment with panoramic views is poised for a lifestyle of comfort and convenience. Exuding a peacefulness that's perfectly reflected within the property's interior, tall Silver Birch trees line the entrance path and offer a calming introduction to this light filled haven. Large picture windows invite abundant natural light and provide unobstructed views over the sweeping urban landscape, whilst a timeless black and white colour pallet is revealed. Dressed with a granite benchtop, the kitchen with stainless steel appliances is superbly functional, and the north facing living and dining area extends out to a balcony that beckons relaxation against a tranquil, leafy backdrop. Accommodation comprises two robed bedrooms and a modern bathroom discreetly housing a concealed laundry, whilst ducted heating, air conditioning, and undercover parking enhance everyday comfort. Nestled at the rear of the block, enjoy proximity to trams, South Yarra Station, beautiful Como Park, plus Toorak Road and Chapel Street's vibrant shopping and hospitality experiences.
