Promoting deluxe comfort with a designer aesthetic, this fantastic apartment promises an elegant lifestyle in a boutique building close to the village. Enjoy level access from the street to this sophisticated abode, finished with herringbone flooring and ideally orientated with a north-east aspect. The kitchen and bathroom are crafted in exquisite fashion and both bedrooms are well-scaled. It excels in privacy and security in a highly desirable cul-de-sac location that's only 300 metres from Queen Street's refined village offerings. Full-brick design defined by high ceilings and elegant engineered flooring. Generous living space features large windows framing up the leafy outlook. Superb stone kitchen with induction stovetop and a Westinghouse oven. Both bedrooms equipped with mirrored built-in wardrobes and ceiling fans. Upgraded bathroom with stylish aesthetic, quality tapware with rain shower. Intercom, automated security gate to resident parking, ample street parking. Short walk to Queen Street cafes, Woollahra Hotel and Bistro Moncur. Easy stroll to Oxford Street Paddington and the gates of Centennial Park
