Bright and elevated, this fine two bedroom apartment exudes a chic vibe, complete with sunny balcony. Benefitting from an westerly aspect and set in the beautifully maintained Piccadilly Gardens, this home is neat as a pin, with two generous bedrooms, a living area and the important inclusion of a private parking space. Piccadilly Gardens is a 1963-built complex that has been preserved to the highest standards. Bathed in light from its western orientation, it is a modernist space, perfect for a young family or as an excellent first homebuyer opportunity. With fantastic near-original styling and pleasing district views, it offers huge scope for a bespoke touch to craft a perfectly private contemporary home. Situated in the heart of a desirable and sought-after suburb, with its tree-lined streets, elegant eateries and cosy pubs, this residence is a superb place to call home. Quiet and private, with easy lift access to its fourth floor position, this stands as a delightful opportunity awaiting the astute new owner.
