Set on a sealed road just under 10 minutes to Colac this period home offers so much potential to renovate and restore with features including high ceilings, spacious bedrooms and the front porch to sit and watch the birds fly by. Situated in the ever-popular Barongarook area, the land size of 3,007sqm is a rare find amongst larger acreage holdings. The property offers tank water, a secure colourbond shed, established garden beds and a bush setting. Bring the tools and your passion for a project because once you complete the the restoration, 15 Barrys Road is sure to be a stand out! Don't miss your opportunity to secure this little piece of history in an idyllic location, contact exclusive selling agents Andrea and Emma today!
