The master bedroom features a walk-in robe (WIR) and an ensuite. The additional bedrooms come with built-in robes (BIRs), ensuring ample storage space. The home boasts a single car remote control garage with a drive-through roller door providing convenient access to the spacious backyard. Outdoor living is a delight with a balcony, pergola, and low-maintenance landscaped entertaining area. Inside, you'll find multiple living areas, including an open-plan kitchen, meals, and family area that seamlessly flows through to the outdoor space. The upstairs retreat with a private balcony offers a cozy spot to unwind. A walk-in pantry, soft-close drawers, a dishwasher, a tiled splash back, and plenty of bench and cupboard space, heating and cooling. Situated in a quiet pocket serviced by existing and developing schools, natural surroundings, and two future town centres. It's only a five-minute drive to the well-established Caroline Springs town centre. The area, known as the school district of Victoria, offers a range of education options for students of all ages, from early learning to primary and high schools, all within minutes from your home. Don't miss this opportunity to lease a beautifully appointed home in an emerging suburb with everything you need for a comfortable and convenient lifestyle. Contact us today to arrange a viewing!
