Entrenched in the heart of Kureelipa, Belle Property presents 80 acres of magnificent rural property to be auctioned on the 27th April, 2024. The property has street appeal being situated with a cul-de-sac entrance off Bullock Court, with newly installed double steel frame gates, powder coated with a hardwood timber assembly. Additionally, there is a second entrance into the property at the end of Goodey Way. Where else will you find such a large parcel of land strategically positioned? The property is ripe for a lifestyle development with several elevated ridges offering house sites with northern aspects and views that stretch for miles throughout the hinterland. Water is sufficient for livestock with three permanent dams and seasonal gully running through the property. A magnificent wet season has maintained a heavy growth of improved pastures and fencing is all stock proof, with brand new 4 barb along the northern boundary. This is a unique opportunity like no other. With developed acreage properties on three sides, two street access, this is definitely a beautiful property to build your dream home and landbank for the future.
