A pleasing combination of old world charm and modern style this home is sure to impress. Expect to find extremely high ceilings, spacious rooms and tasteful modern decor. The lounge has a split system air-condition, ceiling fan and a wood fireplace for year round comfort. The kitchen has been renovated and has quality appliances. Both the main bathroom (separate shower and bath) and the second bathroom /laundry are modern and tasteful. There are 4 bedrooms and a study. If you want to enjoy the sun or fresh air you have a choice of the front verandah or the roofed side deck. The house is situated on a corner block and has well established trees and shrubs. The block is 753m² and subject to council approval there's potential to put a granny flat onsite. Other features include solar power, 2 garden sheds and contemporary flooring, new carpets and freshly painted throughout. Fantastic location central to the high and primary schools and a short walk to a shopping centre and the main street (High St) which has an abundance of quality shops and cafes. Within a 20 minute (approx.) drive to Port Macquarie.
