If you are a first home buyer, small family or an investor looking for affordability with a chance to further update and add value - then this may be the perfect opportunity! This charming, three-bedroom character home with polished jarrah floorboards throughout the kitchen and living area – is conveniently located within minutes of shopping centres, medical facilities, schools, Southern Regional TAFE and the cinema. If you need to travel further afield – Albany CBD is a short 5-minute drive away. This very functional home has a spacious, enclosed yard with dual access providing ample room for a caravan or extra vehicles. The fabulous, powered shed is a feature that is sure to attract interest. And not forgetting the superb, enclosed patio at the back of the property – a perfect place to relax throughout all seasons! Presenting a prime opportunity, this terrific property has scope to add value without too much extra investment or effort! There is plenty of potential on offer here. Come see.
