Situated in the elevated area of Chigwell, in a quiet cu-de-sac, is this 2015 built, two-story home. The property captures a stunning outlook over the River Derwent and beyond. Upstairs you'll discover a large living and dining space where you'll be engulfed by the view. The kitchen offers plenty of storage, double sink, stainless steel appliances and electric hot plates. The glass sliding doors leading from the kitchen will take you out to the large deck and barbeque area. A few steps up is the garden and grass area which includes a washing line and a fire pot which is the perfect spot to enjoy the view with a few friends. Going back inside, this home offers two bedrooms, a brilliant bathroom with a tub and separate laundry. The primary bedroom offers a built-in wardrobe, and you'll fall in love with the view once more as you imagine yourself waking up here. Also included with this property is a single car garage, fitted with a Tri-Tran roller door. This is an amazing opportunity for first home buyers entering the market.
