Discover the allure of this generous two-bedroom residence, positioned on a 556-square-meter parcel of land. Located approximately 1km from Sanctuary Point's central shopping strip, school, and daycare facilities, and an array of charming cafes and restaurants. A notable highlight is the detached single drive-through garage, ensuring effortless vehicle access and parking. The well-conceived layout of the residence offers ample open living space, creating a comfortable and spacious environment for prospective residents. Beyond the confines of the home, the substantial land size of 556 square meters opens up possibilities for outdoor activities, personalised landscaping, or even potential future expansions. Envision not just a residence but a canvas for a versatile and dynamic lifestyle, and endless opportunities for customisation and growth.
