A celebration of contemporary minimalism and quality design, this newly built family home captures the essence of urban style in the dress-circle of Concord between Majors Bay Road's shopping village and Central Park. Set in a peaceful family friendly enclave, the two-storey home overdelivers in terms of light and space with a sleek monochrome palette featuring polished concreted floors and crisp white walls offset by finishes in oak and stone for a highly tailored feel. Designed to take full advantage of a north-to-rear aspect, the four-bedroom home opens out to a sunny entertainer's deck with the upper level featuring three king-sized bedrooms, a luxurious master suite and fitted study. Surrounded by recreational parkland, this stylish low-maintenance family home is just 400m to the shopping hub, 800m to North Strathfield station and 900m to Concord Golf Club.
