From $485,000

Offered to the market for very first time in the last 50 years, number 15 Foster Road presents as well as the day it was first constructed. Tightly held in the same family, this much loved home exudes a true sense of warmth and character. Typifying individual features as expected of the 70's era, it sports towering high ceilings complimented with solid timber floors throughout. Occupying a substantial 692sqm allotment, this attractive proposition is further enhanced with its 2 street frontage allowing for ample vehicle parking.
