Ideal for new home buyers or downsizers looking for a spacious and well-maintained home, this 3 bedroom, 2 bathroom, 2 living area home on the high side of Fullarton Drive boasts great bones, ample space, huge potential for an update and provides the perfect canvas to make your own personal touches. A slate tiled entry welcomes you into the home. To the left of the entry is an oversized lounge and room for a formal dining table setting. This multipurpose room features a cozy wood fire place, big picture windows and sliding doors opening onto the covered, north facing deck which showcases lake and mountain views. An extension of the living area, this deck is a great place to wine and dine or simply relax, catch the sun and enjoy the view. The slate entrance floor flows into the second living and/or casual dining and kitchen. The functional large kitchen features electric hotplates and oven, dishwasher, a good-sized pantry and breakfast bar. Reverse cycle air-conditioning looks after your heating and cooling needs. 2 ample bedrooms with built in robes are serviced by a large central bathroom and separate toilet. The main bedroom with walk in robe and large ensuite has prime position at the rear of the house and overlooks the big, secure back garden. A good-sized garden shed is great for all your storage needs plus there is an additional storage shed off the side of the double carport. Ample side access to the rear yard allows for boat and/or caravan storage. Don't miss out on this fabulous opportunity, on a sought-after street, to enter the Paynesville market.
