Nestled in a prized leafy enclave, this exquisite entertainers' oasis is a celebration of sophistication and style, placing its family within a short walk of sprawling parks and prestigious schools. Situated at the rear of a tranquil court, the home's flawless European-inspired facade is framed by a manicured frontage, opening to reveal a light-filled layout with expansive proportions, cosy warm tones, and tasteful timber flooring. The airy interiors showcase a sumptuous formal living room alongside a versatile dining space that doubles as a study or playroom, while the casual family/meal zone spills to a flexible rear rumpus with calming garden outlooks. For a household of entertainers, the glorious covered deck is a true highlight, overlooking the serene easy-care backyard, as the roomy gas kitchen expands on opportunities for socialising with a prime central position. Completing the family-focused floorplan, the oversized main bedroom is zoned for peace and privacy with plenty of space for a quiet sitting area alongside the two walk-in robes and dual vanity ensuite, while the three remaining bedrooms share the tidy family bathroom and separate w/c. Complementing the home's soothing ambience and modern functionality, finishing touches include ducted heating, evaporative cooling, and quality carpet, plus blinds throughout, security shutters, a double garage, and solar panels to aid with energy efficiency. Life in this coveted pocket of Keysborough is all about convenience, with this stunning home surrounded by spectacular parks and Keysborough Golf Club, while situated within a stroll of elite private schools such as Haileybury and Lighthouse Christian College. It's also just moments from Keysborough Gardens Primary School, Keysborough Secondary College, and Parkmore Shopping Centre, plus Keysborough South Shopping Centre and the Eastlink for seamless city commuting. Move-in ready with scope to personalise, this large family haven is an exceptional all-rounder. Contact us today for a priority inspection.
