This solidly built home is set on a gently sloping, elevated Willow Rise lot measuring 780m² (approx.) and offers fantastic views from the kitchen, living areas, and balcony to the north across the suburbs of Wodonga to the hills of Albury. 3 generous bedrooms with ensuite and walk-in robe to master are complemented by a spacious 'L' shaped lounge and dining room that leads through to a functional kitchen and adjacent family area. Year-round comfort is provided with ducted heating and cooling throughout. Downstairs provides additional sought after features including a huge rumpus room plus a large, fully powered workshop and storage room. Vehicle storage is catered for with an oversized double lock-up garage while rear yard access is provided through a fully paved driveway.
