Enviably positioned in the sought after suburb of Turvey Park, this beautiful red brick home is well presented with plenty of character & charm with high ceilings, timber floors and a stylish facade. Comprising of three bedrooms all with built-in robes. Every door in this house leads to a beautiful garden area for that cheese platter with friends or just some alone time. A divine white kitchen to cook up a storm with heaps of storage and dishwasher. Large lounge room with high ornate ceilings and ceiling fan. 15 Lindsay St offers 2 bathrooms, one at the front of the house with a bath and the other at the rear of the house. Ducted floor heating and ducted air conditioning will provide comfort all year round, no matter what weather Wagga throws at you. Externally, you'll be spoilt with a massive outside entertaining area that overlooks the most divine back yard with established trees and hedges. 2 work shops/ sheds for extra storage or that man cave for a beer with a mate. With close proximity to primary and secondary schools and all central conveniences, this home offers a perfect combination of location, space and character....this truly is a gem.
